How do we recruit our performers?

Mike Russ Entertainments Group has a unique in either finding great acts or acts who normally will get in touch about coming on board with us. The majority of agents will normally ask to see video footage and if its good will take them on without any auditions to take place auditioning Ross Sykes our CEO and Founder of the company has a unique in auditioning acts who want to be represented by Mike Russ Entertainments. If an act approaches us then a quick search of the act is carried out to see if they are anywhere near the level of high standards. We then ask for 3 public engagements that they have been booked to perform. We always go to the first booking undercover and they have a number of things that they have to pass. If they are great the first time we go and see them on the second booking and if they maintain the standard that we saw on the first booking we present ourselves at the end of the show

If they are extremely bad on the first booking or sound like a workings man club act then they receive an email sadly declining but we always add constructive feedback.

Our Customer Service and Our Promise.

Ross Sykes accidentally came in to the music and entertainment industry whilst working on board the QE2 and was entered a singing competition; crew v passengers and came second, He was offered a 6 weeks trial performing with the resident band. He accepted this on the basis that he wouldn't have to leave the QE2 and still a full time with Cunard Line Ltd. A month before his debut performance, Ross had dancing lessons as well vocal coaching sessions. He decided to change his name like all the other performers to Mike Russ, after his godson who was christened Michael Russell. Ross remained on the QE2 for 9 years before venturing out in the big wide world. In 2000 Ross had to retire due to a serious health issues and had to retire from performing. In 2002 he came back to Entertainment but this time as an Agent and has never looked back working with some amazing performers.

We operate to the rules of HMRC and Companies House, all our roster work fulltime in the entertainments industries and showbiz and submit at the end of every financial year their accounts. Unlike a lot of other acts, you may see around in pubs and clubs all have full-time jobs and their Friday's and Saturdays are just pin money, whereas our performers it's a career and they are constantly investing in their acts or show, with props or new professionally made costumes or new pa equipment.

We visit every booking we have made with us to check with our performers to make sure they have everything they need and importantly make sure our client is happy. We always do a full sound check with all our performers and will go in every corner of the room so that we know everyone can hear the sound ok and if they are issues we are on site to correct it.

M R Tribute Acts UK Agency takes great pride in supplying the very best Tribute Acts and Tribute Bands to all occasions. There are tribute acts, tribute bands now to virtually every star imaginable. If you do not see what you are looking for then please contact us, as we have a comprehensive roster of virtually every sort of act that you can imagine or require! Our sound pricing structure also means that you get the best for your money. A Tribute Act or Tribute Band can provide a similar experience for a fraction of the cost to the actual star or celebrity! Whoever your favourite artist, chances are there is already a Tribute Act paying homage to them! We select our Tribute Acts very carefully as there are so many bad acts on the circuit. Our Tributes acts must have the total character and how they act. Their sound must be very like to the person they are a tribute and the stars mannerism is a must. There is nothing more fabulous than seeing our Tribute Acts going down a storm and really owning their audience.

When you book with Mike Russ Entertainments you truly are booking a top professional artists or one of the best-talented performers. Ross Sykes doesn't mess, he always gave a first-class show and now he ensures you to have a first-class show with his performers.

Our Service and Our Promise

Ross Sykes is still very active in the business despite his disabilities from an accident he had in 2007 but one thing that he promises is the best service and the best entertainment you can imagine and giving you and your guests or customers a fantastic evening of entertainment. In today's market everything is done over the internet with emailing etc but when you're dealing with Mike Russ Entertainments you get the perfect package of great entertainment, first class customer service and Ross or one of his agent's attends every booking that we receive to take away the added pressure of worrying if the entertainment will turn up ect. We will check in our entertainers, ensure a full sound check has been carried out and once we are halfway through the first set we then disappear quietly for you to enjoy the rest of your evening.

"Our Promise to you" is you will be supplied fantastic entertainment and you can definitely rely on "Mike Russ" Entertainments (MRE) Group Ltd for outstanding entertainment and first-class customer service. We will always try and surpass your expectations of dealing with an entertainments company that really does care about your event!

We go that extra mile in making sure the entertainment we provide is good enough if it was the entertainment that we were going to book.

Sadly with the rise of fraud the world is coming too, with scam agents or companies being set up by un skilled and un experience agencies or companies that are not a registered business with the government because they are claiming benefits themselves and dont want to get caught, makes the job harder for those professional entertainments agencies who are working hard to make an honest living. So that you know you're dealing with a professional entertainments companies we do attend all bookings, so that we get to meet our customers face to face as well as a catch up with our performers but importantly to assist the booker and to alleviate some of the stress we check in all our entertainers and make sure they set up without an issues and carry out a full sound check and to organise their dressing room with tea, coffee, dinner ect and to make sure they go on stage on time. Once they are halfway through their first set, if you're happy we quietly disappear to enjoy the rest of your evening. We are available to all our bookers 24/7 and we want to make sure that we your event is a huge success because if it is then we sucessful too.
